To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend Ruth Muthoni Wachira for any nursing assistant position she may seek. Ruth has been a valuable member of our team at Oljabet Hospital since January 2018, and she has consistently demonstrated exemplary skills and dedication to her work.

As a nursing assisant at Oljabet Hospital, Ruth has been assigned to various duties associated with patient care in geriatric wards. She has excelled in providing compassionate and skilled care to our patients, particularly in feeding, bed baths, turning and moving patients, dusting, assisting in toileting, patient grooming, and other related tasks. Her attention to detail and commitment to maintaining a clean and safe environment for patients have been commendable.

Ruth's clinical skills are top-notch, and she is well-versed in nursing care protocols and procedures. She is efficient, organized, and always strives to deliver the best possible care to her patients. Ruth has also demonstrated excellent communication skills, both with patients and with her colleagues. She is a team player and is always willing to go the extra mile to ensure that our patients receive the best care possible.

Aside from her clinical skills, Ruth possesses a positive attitude and a compassionate demeanor, which make her a pleasure to work with. She is empathetic towards the needs of our patients and provides emotional support to them and their families during challenging times. Ruth is also proactive in identifying potential issues and taking appropriate action to address them, showing great initiative and critical thinking skills.

In addition to her nursing care duties, Ruth has been involved in various other tasks associated with patient care, and she has excelled in all of them. She is reliable, dependable, and consistently demonstrates a strong work ethic. Her commitment to professionalism, ethics, and excellence in nursing care is evident in her daily work.

Based on her outstanding performance and dedication to patient care, I have no doubt that Ruth will be an asset to any healthcare organization. I wholeheartedly recommend Ruth Muthoni Wachira for any nursing assistant position she may apply for, and I am confident that she will continue to excel in her nursing assistant career.
